Dear Mom and Dad

You guys are special because you are so loving and caring. You're always willing to do anything I need you to no matter what. You guys are always there for me even if you had to stop doing your job at work. Like when I was diagnosed with diabetes, you stopped what you were doing and went straight to the hospital. Another reason I love you guys is before I go to sleep you guys always hug me and kiss me. That is what helps me fall asleep at night. I love you guys with all of my heart.

Love,
Breanna

What makes a Good Parent

A good parent feeds you food you like and it's nice. They get you what you want and they let you go outside and play. They take you to fun places like water parks. They get you presents and give you transportation. Good parents keep you alive. They give you things to do and a home. They help you with school and they make sure your ready and have the right close on so you don't catch a cold. They let you do what you want and make sure you have friends where you live. They always, even if they get mad, will love you forever.
