A good parent provides shelter, food, water and clothing for their kids. Another thing that a good parent does is to make their kids laugh. I think it is important that parents keep their kids safe. Like when my dad takes us to the basement when there is a very bad storm. I also think that it is important that that kids feel loved by their parents. Another example is my mom gives me a hug before I go to bed every night. Those are some of the things that a parent does to be a good parent.

There are many things to being a good parent.
They should give you food and water every day.
They should pay for clothes and shoes.
Parents should be a good role model they should be there for you when you need them most.
And pay for a house and taxes.
Pay for school and help you in school too.
Parents should teach you how to behave.
And NOT to be a bully, and how to treat
other with respect.
Parents should try to make you happy.
And buy you presents.
And most of all love you so much.

Dear Mom and Dad,
...Thank you for all the things you give me. Thank you for the roof over my head. Mommy your birthday is coming up and I want to do something special. Daddy even though you really bother me with football I would not change a thing about you for some reason. Mommy even though you come home from work telling some pretty odd stories I love you. If I didn't have a mom or a dad I would be sad. The only ones I want are you. I love you both.

Love,
Alayna

A good parent has to be loving, nice, and comitted to helping with this child. They have to be helpful and willing to do things like go on roller coasters and helping with homework. Being a good parent is not very hard just lissen to what the kid has to say and help them with there problems. Work them thru the hard times that they have in there life. Be nice have fun with them and make there life strong and hethly. Give your child a love support and happiness. Give your child a good rool moldol. That is what makes a good parent.
